

Subject: Jurisdiction	Page 1 of 1
Effective Date: April 1997	Revision Date: November 2011
Amends/Supersedes: July 2008	Approved by: Chief Kevin Higdon
Meets Accreditation Standard:	1.2

Section 100.40 Jurisdiction

KRS 95.740 (1) (Powers of Chief of Police and Policemen) states, "The Chief of Police and every member of the police force in cities of the third class may, whether directed to them or not, execute warrants of arrest, processes, subpoenas and attachments for witnesses, they may arrest as prescribed by law for offenses against ordinances or municipal regulations of the city, and shall have the same power of arrest for offenses against the state as a sheriff."