Section 1500.10 Criminal Investigations

Policy

All officers of the Shively Police Department must carry on criminal investigations of necessity. No particular unit of this department can be expected to carry the entire burden.

The goal of this department regarding any crime under investigation is an early arrest and successful prosecution of the perpetrator.

Responsibilities

The Chief of Police may appointment staffing to the Criminal Investigation Division (C.I.D.) of the Shively Police Department as desired. Each member of C.I.D. shall diligently utilize available resources in a responsible manner to investigate, prosecute and bring criminal cases to proper adjudication in court.

- Members assigned to C.I.D. should pursue career development tracks to further their experience and knowledge in investigations.
- At times, members of C.I.D. may be called upon to conduct Administrative Investigations for the Office of the Chief.
- C.I.D. members shall strive to cooperate and work together with other divisions of the Shively Police Department as well as other agencies that they may encounter.
